Is this the truth?

Is this a joke?

Is any of it real?

Since 11th Sept 2001 The United States of America and the corrupt allies countries, satellite states like England, Australia, Canada, France, Germany and some other European countries have parroted everything USA President has said and quoted it all as being the truth, whole truth, so help us nothing but the truth, so help them God.

Sorry God wont help liars.

We will explore if the Official story about killing Bin Laden is the truth and let the cards fall where they may, after reading this book and the information – stories I have to present I will destroy the official story and have proven it bull shit, straight out lies.

If bin Laden was dead, Would the U.S. admit it?

"We're hunting him down," he said. "We're tracking him down. He's hiding. We haven't heard hide nor hair of him for about, oh, since December, in terms of anything hard." Rumsfeld said...

News of Bin Laden's Death and Funeral 10 days ago

Islamabad –

A prominent official in the Afghan Taleban movement announced yesterday the death of Osama bin Laden, the chief of al-Qa'da organization, stating that bin Laden suffered serious complications in the lungs and died a natural and quiet death.

The official, who asked to remain anonymous, stated to The Observer of Pakistan that he had himself attended the funeral of bin Laden and saw his face prior to burial in Tora Bora 10 days ago.

He mentioned that 30 of al-Qa'da fighters attended the burial as well as members of his family and some friends from the Taleban.

The official stated that it is difficult to pinpoint the burial location of bin Laden because according to the Wahhabi tradition no mark is left by the grave.

He stressed that it is unlikely that the American forces would ever uncover any traces of bin Laden.

Report Bin Laden Already Dead

Wednesday, December 26, 2001

<http://www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,41576,00.html>

Usama bin Laden has died a peaceful death due to an untreated lung complication, the Pakistan Observer reported, citing a Taliban leader who allegedly attended the funeral of the Al Qaeda leader.

"The Coalition troops are engaged in a mad search operation but they would never be able to fulfill their cherished goal of getting Usama alive or dead," the source said.

Bin Laden, according to the source, was suffering from a serious lung complication and succumbed to the disease in mid-December, in the vicinity of the Tora Bora mountains.

The source claimed that bin Laden was laid to rest honorably in his last abode and his grave was made as per his Wahabi belief.

About 30 close associates of bin Laden in Al Qaeda, including his most trusted and personal bodyguards, his family members and some "Taliban friends," attended the funeral rites.

A volley of bullets was also fired to pay final tribute to the "great leader."

The Taliban source who claims to have seen bin Laden's face before burial said "he looked pale ... but calm, relaxed and confident."

Asked whether bin Laden had any feelings of remorse before death, the source vehemently said "no."

Instead, he said, bin Laden was proud that he succeeded in his mission of igniting awareness amongst Muslims about hegemonistic designs and conspiracies of "pagans" against Islam.

Bin Laden, he said, held the view that the sacrifice of a few hundred people in Afghanistan was nothing, as those who laid their lives in creating an atmosphere of resistance will be adequately rewarded by Almighty Allah.

When asked where bin Laden was buried, the source said, "I am sure that like other places in Tora Bora, that particular place too must have vanished."

Hoax: White House Claims 4-Year-Old Bin Laden Video Is New Footage

Dubious Bin Laden "Home Movies" Identical To Tapes Released 4 Years Ago By Pentagon Front Group

In a desperate effort to bolster its crumbling official narrative, the White House today released a set of dubious Bin Laden "home movies" purportedly seized from his compound during the raid on Sunday night that it claims show Bin Laden on camera in 2010, but the tapes are almost identical to footage released almost four years ago by a notorious Pentagon front group that acts as a conduit for US intelligence by regularly releasing fake Al-Qaeda videos.

Before we even look at the new tapes, recall that the Washington Post reported last year on how CIA officials recruited "darker-skinned employees" to create fake Bin Laden tapes.

The fact that the CIA created fake Bin Laden tapes is an admitted fact, not a conspiracy theory.

"Extraordinary home videos taken from Osama bin Laden's hideout show the terrorist leader watching news coverage of himself on television," reports the Daily Mail.

"The videos were seized by Navy SEALs after Bin Laden was killed. They were shown to reporters this afternoon by intelligence officials."

The footage is filmed from almost behind his head and only shows a small portion of his face.

The TV shows footage of Bin Laden as well as still images and footage of Barack Obama.

Interestingly, the only moment in which the cameraman zooms in on the TV so that you can clearly see the picture is when it either shows Bin Laden, Obama, or both of them in a still shot together.

Interestingly, the only moment in which the cameraman zooms in on the TV so that you can clearly see the picture is when it either shows Bin Laden, Obama, or both of them in a still shot together.

Contrary to the footage of Bin Laden allegedly flicking through television channels, in which his beard is gray, in the other tapes, which the White House claims were recorded between October and November 2010, Bin Laden appears with his beard dyed black.

The man watching TV appears to be much older than the Bin Laden seen in the other tapes.

However, these tapes are almost identical to footage first released by the Pentagon front group SITE in September 2007.

In that footage, Bin Laden also appears with a dyed beard and is wearing exactly the same clothes.

The only thing that differs is the color of the background, but in other tapes the background is the same brown color as the 2007 tape.

As computer expert Neal Krawetz's analysis revealed, fake backgrounds are often used on purported "Al-Qaeda" tapes, where a blue screen is used to superimpose the figure of the speaker over a pre-selected backdrop.

The footage in these tapes purports to show Bin Laden making recordings in late 2010, and yet he looks identical to how he appeared in tapes first released in 2007.

The establishment media has completely failed to even mention the fact that much of the footage, which the White House claims was filmed in 2010, is almost identical to that first released in 2007 by the Pentagon front group SITE.

Why would Bin Laden make a video in October 2010 and not release it?

It would not be the first time that tapes of Bin Laden have been passed off as new material when in fact they are years old.

In July 2007, the mainstream media heralded the arrival of a tape of Bin Laden giving a speech as new footage.

In fact it was almost six years old, having been filmed in October 2001 and later released by IntelCenter, SITE's sister organization, in October 2003.

At the time we did an image comparison proving that the footage dubbed "new" in 2007 was in fact filmed in 2001 and released first by the Al-Ansaar Islamic news agency in 2002.

As we documented yesterday, the organization that released the original 2007 tape which is virtually identical to the tapes released by the White House today is nothing more than a conduit for Pentagon propaganda run the daughter of a former Israeli spy.

The SITE organization is virtually a contractor for the U.S. government, receiving some $500,000 a year annually from Uncle Sam, and has been caught releasing fake Al-Qaeda tapes on numerous occasions.

SITE's website domain is hosted by servers located in Washington DC, which are stationed between the Department of Homeland Security and the Israeli Embassy.

As in the 2007 tape, the As-Sahab logo appears in the "new" tapes released by the White House.

A 2007 investigation by Neal Krawetz featured in Wired Magazine found that the As-Sahab logo was added at the same as the IntelCenter logo, another US military-industrial complex front, meaning the so-called "Al-Qaeda" tapes were in fact coming straight out of US intelligence circles.

Although Krawetz asserted that this was the case in a taped interview, after the story began to receive attention he mysteriously backed away from the claim despite Wired's Kim Zetter receiving approval from Krawetz that all the information contained in the original report was valid.

These "new" tapes which are actually identical to footage first released in 2007 will do little to firm up the White House's crumbling Bin Laden narrative, which has been under suspicion after it was reported that Osama's body was hastily dumped into the sea and President Obama refused to release an image of the dead Bin Laden.

The narrative of last Sunday's raid has flip-flopped constantly and even mainstream journalists are starting to become wary, particularly after it emerged that Obama and Hillary could not have watched the raid unfold live as they had claimed because the live feed was cut before the Navy SEALs entered the compound, meaning that the "situation room" photos that purported to show Obama and Hillary watching Bin Laden's assassination live were in fact completely staged.

A longer clip of the video that claims to show Bin Laden watching TV appears below.

Chapter 4

UPDATED: Latest WH act of desperation - Videos show bin Laden watching himself on TV

The guy with the remote isn't recognizable, you cannot actually see what is on the TV screen, and according to the FBI, the real Osama was left-handed, while the man in the video is using his right hand for the remote control.

But other than that, a very convincing picture!

Really.

I mean it!

Splendid work (for the government).

I mean, just look at those walls!

Clearly this is the inside of a million dollar mansion!

The EARS have it!

Ears are as unique as fingerprints, and they do not change with time.

The ears do not match (and the noses are also different).

The man in the video watching TV is most definitely not Osama Bin Laden.

Chapter 5

PREDICTED IN MARCH 2010: Staging bin Laden's 'Death'

The US authorities claim they shot an unarmed, defenseless Osama Bin Laden in what can only be described as an act of cold-blooded murder -- then threw his body in the ocean.

This story is not only an insult to Muslim sensibilities, it's an insult to the intelligence of anyone who hears it.

Why wouldn't they make every effort to take Bin Laden alive in order to glean potentially crucial information, then put him on trial?

And if they had screwed up and killed him, why wouldn't they keep his body around long enough to satisfy a skeptical world -- and then have it buried according to Muslim custom, in order to avoid reprisals by millions of angry Muslims?

Muslims for 9/11 Truth board member Enver Masud predicted, almost exactly one year ago, that US authorities were preparing to stage "Bin Laden's death."

Looks like Enver nailed that one!

PREDICTED IN MARCH 2010: Staging bin Laden's 'Death'

<http://www.globalresearch.ca/index.php?context=va&aid=24595>

It appears that we are being primed for the "death" of al Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden.

Attorney General Eric Holder told a House panel this month [March 2010] that bin Laden "will never appear in an American courtroom."

Others who have examined the evidence, and the "bin Laden tapes," have concluded that bin Laden is dead.

US Defense Secretary Robert Gates admitted that the US has had no reliable information on the whereabouts of Osama Bin Laden in years.

But the US needs a neat ending to its war on Afghanistan.

Staging bin Laden's death will be seen as a fitting end to this genocidal war for the control of energy resources.

Of course it will have to be done so that visual identification is not possible.

We suspect that when bin Laden is "killed," we'll just have to trust the folks that lied us into war to confirm they got him.

Chapter 6

Former CIA Officials Admit To Faking Bin Laden Video

Military psy-ops took over operation after intelligence project failed to take off

Two former CIA officials have admitted to creating a fake video in which intelligence officers dressed up as Osama Bin Laden and his cronies in an effort to defame the terrorist leader throughout the middle east.

The details are outlined in a Washington Post article by investigative reporter and former Army Intelligence case officer Jeff Stein.

Stein's sources told him that during planning for the 2003 invasion of Iraq, the CIA's Iraq Operations Group considered creating a fake video of Saddam Hussein engaged in sexual acts with a teenage boy, then flooding Iraq with copies of the tape.

That idea, along with faking Iraqi news bulletins, never came to fruition according to the former CIA officials, because agreement on the projects could not be reached between the Iraq Group and CIA's Office of Technical Services.

However, the two sources reveal that the agency did previously concoct at least one fake Bin Laden video

The agency actually did make a video purporting to show Osama bin Laden and his cronies sitting around a campfire swigging bottles of liquor and savoring their conquests with boys, one of the former CIA officers recalled, chuckling at the memory.

The actors were drawn from "some of us darker-skinned employees," he said.

The former officials told Stein that the project was taken over by the military after it ground to a halt

The reality, the former officials said, was that the agency really didn't have enough money and expertise to carry out the projects.

"The military took them over," said one. "They had assets in psy-war down at Ft. Bragg," at the army's special warfare center.

This latest revelation bolsters evidence that the intelligence agencies, and perhaps more significantly, the military have been engaged in creating fake Bin Laden videos in the past.

As we have exhaustively documented, Intelcenter, the U.S. monitoring group that routinely releases Bin Laden video and audio, much of which have been proven to be either rehashed old footage or outright fakes, is an offshoot of IDEFENSE, a web security company that monitors intelligence from the middle east.

IDEFENSE is heavily populated by long serving ex military intelligence officials, such as senior military psy-op intelligence officer Jim Melnick, who served 16 years in the US army and the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) in psychological operations.

Melnick has also worked directly for former Defense Secretary Donald Rumsfeld.

Intelcenter notoriously released the "laughing hijackers" tape and claimed it was an Al-Qaeda video, despite the fact that the footage was obtained by a "security agency" at a 2000 Bin Laden speech.

IntelCenter was also caught adding its logo to a tape at the same time as Al-Qaeda's so-called media arm As-Sahab added its logo, proving the two organizations were one and the same.

Could the CIA group of "dark skinned actors" have been behind the infamous December 2001 "Fat nosed" Bin Laden video, that was magically found in a house in Jalalabad after anti-Taliban forces moved in?

The tape featured a fat Osama laughing and joking about how he'd carried out 9/11.

The video was also mistranslated in order to manipulate viewer opinion and featured "Bin Laden" praising two of the hijackers, only he got their names wrong.

This Osama also used the wrong hand to write with and wore gold rings, a practice totally in opposition to the Muslim faith.

Despite the fact that the man in the video looks nothing like Bin Laden, the CIA stood by it and declared it to be the official "9/11 confession video".

The latest revelations also shed light on another past Bin Laden release - a tape in which he ludicrously declared himself in league with Saddam Hussein in the weeks before the invasion of Iraq.

The idea that the CIA project was taken over and drastically improved by the Pentagon at some point after 2003 jives with the improvement in quality of Bin Laden videos in later years.

Most notably the video that was released immediately ahead of the 2004 election, and it's digitally manipulated duplicate from 2007, in which Bin Laden appeared to have a dyed beard.

New Bin Laden "Confession" Tape: Fake Like The Rest?

Osama flip flops and admits he was solely responsible for 9/11

In a "new" audio tape broadcast today on Al-Jazeera television, Osama Bin Laden confesses that he was solely responsible for the attacks on 9/11 and that it was unjust for the United States to have invaded Afghanistan.

However, given that every single tape and video of Bin Laden released since 2002 has been in some way highly suspect, the question that will automatically be on everyone's lips is "Is this tape another fake?"

Al Jazeera aired a few seconds of the tape in which the speaker is reported to say

"The events of Manhattan were retaliation against the American-Israeli alliance's aggression against our people in Palestine and Lebanon, and I am the only one responsible for it.

The Afghan people and government knew nothing about it. America knows that."

The tape, which Reuters describes as having been recorded by "a speaker who sounded like bin Laden" once again contains no reference to current events that would indicate when it was recorded.

The last time Bin Laden specifically "confessed" to having planned the 9/11 attacks was in a video that was later declared to be a total fake.

The December 2001 "Fat nosed" Bin Laden video, was magically found in a house in Jalalabad after anti-Taliban forces moved in.

It featured a fat Osama laughing and joking about how he'd carried out 9/11.

The video was also mistranslated in order to manipulate viewer opinion and featured "Bin Laden" praising two of the hijackers, only he got their names wrong.

This Osama also used the wrong hand to write with and wore gold rings, a practice totally in opposition to the Muslim faith.

Despite the fact that the man in the video looks nothing like Bin Laden, the CIA stood by it and declared it to be the "9/11 confession video".

Shortly after the 9/11, Bin Laden had denied any involvement in the attacks on at least two separate occasions.

Furthermore, the London Independent reported a claim attributed to a friend of one of the six men accused of plotting to detonate bombs on London's underground tube system on July 21 2005, that suggested that Osama bin Laden personally told hook handed radical cleric Abu Hamza that Al-Qaeda was not behind the attacks of September 11, 2001.

This isn't like a kid caught thieving in a sweet shop - terrorists always claim responsibility for attacks they have perpetrated otherwise why bother killing people to send a political message?

One must therefore ask why has Bin Laden flip flopped around on the issue of 9/11?

Even more intriguing is the fact that there has still been no formal indictment of Bin Laden six years on, when it only took three months to charge him with the 1998 embassy bombings.

Every analysis of a newly released Al Qaeda or Bin Laden tape has revealed inconsistencies, flaws and suspicions.

Just a couple of months ago a "9/11 anniversary" video was released by Osama which was quickly deemed to be an iron clad forgery, and not even a good one at that.

All references to current events made by the figure said to be Bin Laden occurred at a point in the video where the picture was frozen and only audio was present.

Bin Laden also presented a pre recorded martyrdom video of one of the alleged 9/11 hijackers, Waleed al Shehri, who was reported by the BBC as still alive and well in Saudi Arabia.

Analysts were also baffled by the wholly fake beard Bin Laden seemed to have donned.

A computer expert later provided evidence that suggested the video was old footage re-released and manipulated. Other analysts came to the same conclusion.

It was also revealed that Adam Pearlman, a suspected Mossad double agent, who once wrote stinging essays condemning Muslims as "bloodthirsty terrorists," was the scriptwriter of the video.

In another previous groundbreaking investigation, we exposed IntelCenter, the middleman between "Al-Qaeda's media arm" and the press, and the organization that routinely obtains the tapes, as little more than a Pentagon front group staffed by individuals with close connections to Donald Rumsfeld and the U.S. war machine.

Computer analyst Neal Krawetz discovered that the As-Sahab logo (the alleged media arm of Al-Qaeda) and the IntelCenter logo were both added to the Al-Qaeda videos at the same time.

Though Krawetz re-affirmed his conclusion in an interview with Wired News, after the fact became public, he mysteriously recanted.

Krawetz original analysis, before he was obviously pressured to withdraw it, clearly suggests that IntelCenter is directly manufacturing the tapes and that "As-Sahab" is a contrived hoax to promulgate the myth that the tapes are coming from Al-Qaeda.

IntelCenter's later denial of of this whole episode was taken with a pinch of salt, for it was the same company that knowingly re-released 6 year old footage of Bin Laden that many quarters of the media treated as new.

IntelCenter itself had released the same footage in October 2003 and it still appears dated as such on their own website.

The organization was also behind the so-called "laughing hijackers" tape, which was passed off as originating from Al-Qaeda's media arm, but was later exposed as being secret surveillance footage filmed by U.S. intelligence in 2000.

In previous articles, we have also outlined how almost every so-called "Al-Qaeda" tape has been released at the most politically opportune time for the Bush administration and the Neo-Cons, including a Bin Laden video right before the 2004 election and a tape in which he ludicrously declared himself in league with Saddam Hussein in the weeks before the invasion of Iraq.

There are simply too many instances of dodgy Osama tapes to cover in one article. Multiple other tapes have been confirmed as rehashed material, others have been confirmed as fakes by voice analysis institutes and Experts on Bin Laden who often attribute them to western controlled intelligence agencies.

They are about as genuine as a used car salesman convention, and have been proven fraudulent on countless occasions.

They are nothing more than crude propaganda unleashed in a desperate move to put the genie of what really happened on 9/11 back in the bottle.

The latest recording comes on the back of revelations that a man who claims to have trained six of the 9/11 hijackers is a paid CIA informant according to Turkish intelligence specialists.

Louai al-Sakka's claims conveniently rewrote aspects of the official 9/11 story, providing a plug for inconsistencies that researchers have long drawn on to encourage a new independent investigation into the attacks.

There can be no doubt anymore that these crudely edited and forged propaganda tapes that are being foisted upon the American people represent nothing more than a contrived hoax to reinforce the moribund official version of 9/11 and the desperately flagging legitimacy of the so-called war on terror.

Chapter 7

YEARS OF DECEIT: US OPENLY ACCEPTS BIN LADEN LONG DEAD

Conservative commentator, former Marine Colonel Bob Pappas has been saying for years that bin Laden died at Tora Bora and that Senator Kerry's claim that bin Laden escaped with Bush help was a lie.

Now we know that Pappas was correct.

The embarrassment of having Secretary of State Clinton talk about bin Laden in Pakistan was horrific.

He has been dead since December 13, 2001 and now, finally, everyone, Obama, McChrystal, Cheney, everyone who isn't nuts is finally saying what they have known for years.

YEARS OF DECEIT: US OPENLY ACCEPTS BIN LADEN LONG DEAD

December 5, 2009

BIN LADEN NEVER MENTIONED IN McCHRYSTAL REPORT OR OBAMA SPEECH

"HUNT FOR BIN LADEN" A NATIONAL SHAME

Conservative commentator, former Marine Colonel Bob Pappas has been saying for years that bin Laden died at Tora Bora and that Senator Kerry's claim that bin Laden escaped with Bush help was a lie.

Now we know that Pappas was correct.

The embarrassment of having Secretary of State Clinton talk about bin Laden in Pakistan was horrific.

He has been dead since December 13, 2001 and now, finally, everyone, Obama, McChrystal, Cheney, everyone who isn't nuts is finally saying what they have known for years.

However, since we lost a couple of hundred of our top special operations forces hunting for bin Laden after we knew he was dead, is someone going to answer for this with some jail time?

Since we spent 200 million dollars on "special ops" looking for someone we knew was dead, who is going to jail for that?

Since Bush, Rumsfeld and Cheney continually talked about a man they knew was dead, now known to be for reasons of POLITICAL nature, who is going to jail for that?

Why were tapes brought out, now known to be forged, as legitimate intelligence to sway the disputed 2004 election in the US?

This is a criminal act if there ever was one.

In 66 pages, General Stanley McChrystal never mentions Osama bin Laden.

Everything is "Mullah Omar" now.

Col. Pappas makes it clear, Vice President Cheney let it "out of the bag" long ago.

America knew Osama bin Laden died December 13, 2001.

After that, his use was hardly one to unite America but rather one to divide, scam and play games.

With bin Laden gone, we could have started legitimate nation building in Afghanistan instead of the eternal insurgency that we invented ourselves.

Without our ill informed policies, we could have had a brought diplomatic solution in 2002 in Afghanistan, the one we are ignoring now, and spent money rebuilding the country, 5 cents on the dollar compared to what we are spending fighting a war against an enemy we ourselves recruited thru ignorance.

We don't even know if he really was an enemy, certainly he was never the person that Bush and Cheney said. In fact, the Bush and bin Laden families were always close friends and had been for many years.

What kind of man was Osama bin Laden?

This one time American ally against Russia, son of a wealthy Saudi family, went to Afghanistan to help them fight for their freedom.

America saw him as a great hero then.

Transcripts of the real bin Laden show him to be much more moderate than we claim, angry at Israel and the US government but showing no anger toward Americans and never making the kind of threats claimed.

All of this is public record for any with the will to learn.

How much of America's tragedy is tied with these two children of the rich, children of families long joined thru money and friendship, the Bush and bin Laden clans.

One son died in remote mountains, another lives in a Dallas suburb hoping nobody is sent after him.

One is a combat veteran, one never took a strong stand unless done from safety and comfort.

Now he is mostly forgotten.

What has America decided about Bush?

We know this: Bin Laden always denied any ties to 9/11 and, in fact, has never been charged in relation to 9/11.

He not only denied involvement, but had done so, while alive, 4 times and had vigorously condemned those who were involved in the attack.

This is on the public record, public in every free country except ours.

We, instead, showed films made by paid actors, made up to look somewhat similar to bin Laden, actors who contradicted bin Ladens very public statements, actors pretending to be bin Laden long after bin Laden's death.

These were done to help justify spending, repressive laws, torture and simple thievery.

For years, we attacked the government of Pakistan for not hunting down someone everyone knew was dead.

Bin Laden's death hit the newspapers in Pakistan on December 15, 2001.

How do you think our ally felt when they were continually berated for failing to hunt down and turn over someone who didn't exist?

What do you think this did for American credibility in Pakistan and thru the Islamic world?

Were we seen as criminals, liars or simply fools? Which one is best?

This is also treason.

How does the death of bin Laden and the defeat and dismemberment of Al Qaeda impact the intelligence assessments, partially based on, not only bin Laden but Al Qaeda activity in Iraq that, not only never happened but was now known to have been unable to happen?

How many "Pentagon Pundits," the retired officers who sold their honor to send us to war for what is now known to be domestic political dirty tricks and not national security are culpable in these crimes?

I don't always agree with Col. Pappas on things.

However, we totally agree on bin Laden, simply disagree with what it means.

To me lying and sending men to their deaths based on lies is treason.

Falsifying military intelligence and spending billions on unnecessary military operations for political reasons is an abomination.

Consider this, giving billions in contracts to GOP friends who fill campaign coffers, and doing so based on falsified intelligence is insane.

This was done for years.

We spent 8 years chasing a dead man, spending billions, sending FBI agents, the CIA, Navy Seals, Marine Force Recon, Special Forces, many to their deaths, as part of a political campaign to justify running American into debt, enriching a pack of political cronies and war profiteers and to puff up a pack of Pentagon peacocks and their White house draft dodging bosses.

How many laws were pushed thru because of a dead man?

How many hundreds were tortured to find a dead man?

How many hundreds died looking for a dead man?

How many billions were spent looking for a dead man?

Every time Bush, Cheney and Rumsfeld stood before troops and talked about hunting down the dead bin Laden, it was a dishonor.

Lying to men and women who put their lives on the line is not a joke.

Who is going to answer to the families of those who died for the politics and profit tied to the Hunt for Bin Laden?

CIA HINTS, BIN LADEN DEAD SINCE "EARLY 2000's

CIA TRIES TO PREPARE AMERICAN PUBLIC FOR TRUTH ABOUT BUSH/BIN LADEN DECEPTION

This week, CIA director Leon Panetta, admitted there has been no information on Osama bin Laden's whereabouts since "the early 2000's."

During briefings with the directors of Pakistan's information and intelligence agencies it was confirmed that Osama bin Laden had been killed, as stated by Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto, in 2001.

"Informed sources," senior Pakistani commanders who worked with the CIA and bin Laden against the Soviets back in the 1980s, had confirmed Osama bin Laden's death, as reported in the mainstream Islamic news, as having occurred on December 15, 2001.

Confirmations this week by CIA Director Panetta that Al Qaeda strength is negligible is preparation for a accompanying "sea change" in the US approach toward ending the conflict in Afghanistan.

For years, General McChrystal, whose recent resignation for “foot in the mouth disease” ignored the facts of Afghanistan, hatred by Afghani’s of Karzai, massive corruption, huge US payoffs to the Taliban and involvement by everyone around him in the drug cartel led by his friends in the Northern Alliance and “Karzai Brothers Incorporated.”

His only military success, the Marjah operation, turned out to be one of the worst military failures in American history, attacking an lightly populated area, misrepresented as a huge enemy stronghold and still not being able to hold onto even that.

America awaits General Stanley McChrystal, the famed “bin Laden hunter,” waiting to see what right wing extremist group or defense contractor opens its checkbook first, thanking him for his years of extremely unsuccessful but “oh so profitable” service.

He will then spend his life, or the remainder of it, playing golf at GOP functions and whining about how he was betrayed and kept from “winning the war in Vietnam” or was it Afghanistan?

Did he ever really know the difference?

'OH WHAT A TANGLED WEB WE WEAVE WHEN FIRST WE PRACTICE TO DECEIVE"...SIR WALTER SCOTT

The famed Scottish poet had no idea he would be describing the Bush/Cheney “War on Terror” when he wrote these immortal words so many years ago.

What do we know is true?

There was once a man named Osama bin Laden.

His family, lifelong friends of the Bush clan, are wealthy pro-American Saudis.

Their son, Osama bin Laden, was a sensitive, deeply religious family man who agreed to fight alongside the CIA backed Mujahideen in Afghanistan.

Beyond this, we know nothing at all.

With audio and video recordings of bin Laden now debunked as phony or mistranslations, there is little evidence that bin Laden ever encouraged or supported terrorism in any way.

The massive weight of generally accepted belief, based on literally millions of stories of bin Laden's terrorist groups and their endless machinations are just that, stories, remnants of the dark recesses of Paul Wolfowitz, Karl Rove and Dick Cheney's imagination and desire to invent a "Hitleresque" enemy to blame the mysteries of 9/11 on.

Similarly, Al Qaeda is really an invention, simply a brand name put on a disorganized group of suicide bombers, angry tribesmen, drug dealers and CIA/Mossad agents.

You can't spend three trillion dollars, suspend the constitution and invade country after country, not without an "axis of evil," a terrorist mastermind and a mysterious organization bent on world destruction, mythology right out of a James Bond novel.

The best part of it, all you have to do is invade countries like Iraq and Afghanistan and, low and behold, you will be up to your neck in civil war, terrorism, suicide bombers, IEDs and debt.

With war profits soaring, gasoline prices through the roof, the national debt at over 13 trillion dollars and 65 billion in heroin pumping out of Afghanistan, a country totally "poppy free" when we arrived, it doesn't take a genius to see why it was so important for the "cardboard lotharios" Bush and Cheney to invent make-believe bad guys who could never be beaten because they never existed in the first place.

THE LIES THAT KILLED OUR VIETNAM POWS

When Kissinger negotiated the disastrous end to the Vietnam war, getting back half our POWs and setting up the destruction of South Vietnam, all to get his Nobel Peace Prize, he was simply doing what he does best, deceiving.

When, after Nixon announced one of the great lies of his political career, and that is saying alot, that "all" POW's had been returned, he condemned hundreds of Americans to a lingering death in Southeast Asia.

Veterans Today editor, Special Forces Colonel Jim Hanke, while a POW recovery officer in Thailand tells of reliable live sightings many years after the end of the war.

Official orders to our military, "No POWs allowed home alive, none!"

Who is responsible for this?

"Hanoi John" Sidney McCain, United States Senator, that's who.

When tapes were declassified and released, tapes of Nixon and Kissinger discussing POWs held by North Vietnam inside Laos, hundreds of Americans who had never been mentioned in the peace agreement, the news was quickly suppressed, kept out of the papers, kept away from our military.

Thus, when after the war, for decades, Senator John McCain, worked to suppress evidence, silence activists and provide cover for the North Vietnamese government reputed to have tortured him for years, a claim refuted by Colonel Ted Guy, we see lies compound, lies that cost American lives.

These lies from Vietnam, whether the secret military records of George W. Bush or the secret POW debriefing of John McCain or the secret reports by General Jan Senja of American POWs shipped to Russian gulags, all share the same end results as the Bush era "whoppers" involving 9/11, Osama bin Laden, Al

Qaeda, CIA involvement in Afghan drugs or the massive Blackwater/Halliburton financial scandals and dozens of other issues, not dozens, more likely hundreds.

"HOW TO UNSCREW A LIGHT BULB"

All evidence the US used, Colin Powell swore to, all evidence Bush gave the America public regarding Iraq, weapons of mass destruction, 9/11, Afghanistan, domestic terrorism, Hurricane Katrina, his secret visits to Dover Air Force base to greet American war dead, in fact almost everything he ever said, they ever said, was untrue.

Time has debunked all of it.

No weapons were found.

No Osama bin Laden was found.

No training bases in Afghanistan were found.

All we have are a few confessions, gotten through torture and thousands of questions unanswered, questions about criminal acts committed by hundreds of government and military officials, not just illegal torture or kidnapping but mostly financial crimes, outright theft, hundreds of billions disappeared, covered up, hidden away, written off as though it never existed.

For years, those surrounding Obama have been trying to get out from under the pile of manure sold the American people as rose petals. Real courage would be "tough love."

No, Osama bin Laden didn't get plastic surgery, shrink 5 inches and move to Israel to make video tapes, especially not after he died.

No, those mysterious terrorist organizations that can only be fought by landing plane after plane on runways adjacent to heroin producing facilities...

Yes, imagine the dozens of terrorists that thousands of Americans, died to find, hundreds of thousands have been wounded or injured to destroy, terrorists living at the ends of the earth with nothing to blow up but rocks and mud huts. What's wrong with this picture?

America has known for certain, no doubt, that Osama bin Laden has been dead yet over 300 Americas have lost their lives looking for him since then, all to perpetuate a lie, a scam to play election games with, scare small children and play on the fears of the weak minded.

Add the 5000 dead, following Colin Powell's fairly tales about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq and the hundreds of thousands of Americans whose lives have been destroyed, million of lives in Iraq, Afghanistan and Pakistan, and you have a tragedy of epic proportions, all perpetrated for personal gain, all nothing but a massive fraud.

For days now several officials inside the US Government and several corporate media outlets have reported that President Obama and other US officials watched live video footage of the Osama Bin Laden assassination raid inside the situation room at the White House.

Chapter 10

White House PSYOP Script Falls Apart

Bin Laden Story Keeps Changing-Obama's Nose Keeps Growing

The standard, call it classic, definition of PSYOP is badly in need of an update.

When you look it up, you see something along these lines [Emphasis are mine] planned propaganda operations to convey selected information and indicators to foreign audiences to influence their emotions, motives, objective reasoning, and ultimately the behavior of foreign governments, organizations, groups, and individuals.

It is way past time to add 'domestic' in there.

Isn't it?

Come on remember our mini PSYOP cases like Jessica Lynch and Pat Tillman.

I say mini 'because they were mini, thus, eventually exposed.

The major 'ones, at least here in the US, tend to go unnoticed or not widely debated.

Right now, we may be very well looking at one of those major ones as it is unfolding White House Osama Death PSYOP Script.

On Monday, less than a day after the supposed operation, I started covering the Osama Death sensationalism.

In my first post I said

"It is way too early for a comprehensive analysis or even a short commentary."

I wish others, the so-called media had exercised the same restraint, instead of spreading the far-fetched and fantastical script given to them by their masters to fire up and round up the gullible and easily hurray-ing majority.

On Tuesday, I pointed out the uncanny resemblance between the script and method used in the Jessica Lynch PSYOP case and the latest Osama Death case "It is too early.

I can talk about the strange timing, absurdity of some mysterious burial at sea, questionable coincidences, and or our government's pretty tainted record when it comes to facts Remember Iraq's WMD lies, Pentagon's made-up script on Jessica Lynch, wrongfully accused Steven Hatfill, questionable Anthrax suspect Bruce Ivins, Niger Yellowcake fantasy..."

Again, it took the resourceful media another 24-48 hours and tons of pounding to make the connections.

Here are the latest changes to the Obama administration's lies-filled script.

Let's keep track of them, and keep them on the front burner, because as you know, as more come out, as we get more confirmed contradictions, the fantastical story tends to get pushed onto the backburner by the media, from front page stories-headlines to Page A2, and from there to B18, and pretty quickly into the usual black hole.

We have gone from the heavy and intensely fought operation against fighting armed men in the Bin Laden compound to no real fight and only one little armed man

Four of the five people shot to death in the operation that killed Osama bin Laden, including the al-Qaida leader himself, were unarmed and never fired a shot...

We went from armed Bin Laden using his wife as a shield to armed Bin Laden using an anonymous woman as a shield, to unarmed Bin Laden using some kind of a woman as a shield, and now, unarmed Bin Laden in pajamas using no one as a shield!

But last night, the White House said Bin Laden was not armed when a U.S. Navy SEAL confronted and killed him during Sunday night's assault on his compound.

Security officials said they did not recover any arms and explosives during their detailed search of the compound and the 13-roomed house, during which they removed two buffalos, a cow and around 150 chickens.

We were told that Bin Laden's compound was a lavish mansion worth over one million dollars, and now we hear it was a humble mud –covered house with not even an air-conditioning system worth less than $250,000

Bin Laden's house, described by the US government as a $1m (£605,000) mansion, is in fact worth no more than $250,000 say property professionals in Abbottabad, the town where he was killed.

Descriptions of Bin Laden's hideout have also been prone to exaggeration.

After Sunday night's dramatic raid by US Navy Seals, a senior Obama administration official told reporters that the property, an "extraordinarily unique compound" in an "affluent suburb", was valued at around $1m.

But two property professionals in Abbottabad – a quiet, military-dominated town – said that much of that was incorrect.

Based on the size of the plot and the house, which was built in 2005, and using recent property sales as a guide, they estimated that it would fetch no more than $250,000 on the current market.

"Twenty million rupees, maximum," said property dealer Muhammad Anwar, a 22-year veteran of the local market, at his Abbottabad office.

"No swimming pool. This is not a posh area. We call it a middling area."

We were given torture, traditional long-term interrogation techniques and surveillance as the major factors leading to the scripted victory, and now we get official statements from Pakistan indicating that they, the Pakistani intelligence, had provided Bin

Laden's location to Mr. Obama over 2 years ago, and again six months ago!

Pakistan hit back Wednesday about US fears that it could not be trusted with details of the raid on Osama bin Laden's compound and claimed it had identified the potential hideout as far back as 2009.

Bashir went on to claim that the ISI passed on its suspicions about the compound in Abbottabad two years ago.

"The fact is, on this particular occasion, it was pointed out by our intelligence quite some time ago to the US intelligence," he said.

"We had indicated as far back as 2009 [it was] a possible place."

The ISI said it again warned just six months ago that "suspicious foreigners" and even "al Qaeda operatives" were potentially inside the compound but denied knowing bin Laden was among them, according to Sky News.

There was no immediate response to that claim from the Obama administration.

And last but not least, they told us our President and Presidents' Men were watching the entire operation, second by second, via satellite and real time.

Now, our President and Presidents' Men are backpedaling in face of exposed lies and contradictions, and use 'Fog of War' for lack of truth and accuracy.

Did the fog fog up the White House real-time TV show and mislead our popcorn-eating President and his Men?!

The White House Tuesday blamed "the fog of war" for conflicting statements in its recounting of the events surrounding the Abbottabad raid that killed Osama bin Laden...

I will be covering this topic as it unfolds further, and I am asking you to help us with keeping this major domestic PSYOP on the front-burner, as you know, when sticky and revelatory facts come out contradicting our officials' story line, things tend to get buried and transferred to the back-burners!

Chapter 11

Media Scrambles as Bin Laden Story Crumbles

While the establishment media was busy parroting President Obama's announcement of Osama bin Laden's supposed assassination, reporting the unsubstantiated claims as if they were unquestionable facts, much of the so-called "alternative" press was far more cautious — and accurate, it turns out.

But more importantly, with the new official storyline indicating that bin Laden was in fact unarmed, bigger and much more important questions are beginning to emerge.

In terms of coverage, it turns out that the skeptical approach proved far superior in terms of getting it right.

Countless mainstream sources were so confident in Obama's word that they reported many of the claims as fact without even attributing them to the President.

But the official White House narrative has been changed so many times in recent days that now it's almost unrecognizable.

There wasn't even a fire fight; yet this was one of the crucial elements of the original story that justified the assassination of a person the government painted as the most valuable source of information on the planet — the leader of al-Qaeda.

And in reporting the statements as fact, the establishment press has officially been left with egg all over its face again.

"[Bin Laden] was engaged in a firefight with those that entered the area of the house he was in," said terror czar John Brennan.

Similarly, Obama said that "after a firefight, they killed Osama bin Laden and took custody of his body."

The next day, however, the White House spokesman admitted bin Laden "was not armed."

Trying to save face and justify the killing of an unarmed man, the spokesman added, without elaborating, that "resistance does not require a firearm."

More than a few other important parts of the storyline have been altered, contradicted, or simply exposed as false, too.

Everything from which of bin Laden's sons was supposedly killed to the claim that his wife was killed after being used as a "human shield" — all of it has changed for some reason or another.

The transcript after Brennan's speech was altered to change the name of the dead son.

The new and improved narrative now says that not only was bin Laden's wife not killed, but that she was not used as a human shield.

Originally the White House also suggested top officials watched the raid live through a video feed.

Terror czar Brennan, for example, claimed that they "had real-time visibility into the progress of the operation."

CIA boss Leon Panetta later exposed that claim as false in an interview with PBS, saying: "There was a time period of almost 20 or 25 minutes that we really didn't know just exactly what was going on."

That means the “photo op” of Obama and other officials intently “watching” the operation in the “Situation Room” was almost certainly staged for the press.

And there’s more.

The night of the raid, one administration official told reporters that a helicopter was lost due to mechanical failure.

During that same briefing, another administration official said, “We didn’t say it was mechanical.”

Now they claim the crash had something to do with the temperature at bin Laden’s supposed compound.

A poorly photo-shopped image of a dead bin Laden embarrassed a large swath of the world press and several Senators, too.

Shortly after newspapers and television stations around the globe ran the image, it was exposed as a shoddy forgery that had been circulating for years.

Now Obama said he “decided” not to release any pictures — or any other evidence that any element of the story is true, for that matter.

And then there’s the burial issue.

The Obama administration originally claimed no country would accept the body so, it was dumped at sea — Mafia style — in accordance with what Obama alleged were Islamic traditions and customs.

When prominent Muslim theological leaders repudiated that lie and noted that it was actually a violation of Islamic tenets to bury Osama bin Laden in the ocean, the new line was that the decision was to avoid the creation of a “shrine.”

That lie fell apart, too, when it was widely reported that bin Laden's brand of Islam calls for unmarked graves — building any sort of shrine would have been blasphemous.

So far, no new excuses have been concocted for allegedly feeding the body to the fish.

After the numerous discrepancies and falsehoods in the storyline became painfully obvious, the Associated Press, USA Today, Fox News and other outlets slowly and begrudgingly started to report it.

"From the first moments, a good number of the details about bin Laden's killing, on points large and small, have been wrong," admitted a Fox reporter in one of the more candid acknowledgements to appear in the mainstream press.

But of course, most of the media were also dutifully offering and parroting all manner of excuses.

"Fog of war" was to blame for the confusion, claimed the White House spokesman after that excuse was suggested to him by a member of the "press" corps asking a question.

Virtually every major news outlet reporting the changes in the official story promptly blamed "fog of war," too.

An apologist reporter at USA Today wrote that "the administration did its best to get the story quickly," adding "it's common situation with military action."

The paper quoted a Pentagon spokesperson under the Bush administration to bolster its case.

The AP offered a similar excuse along with the "fog of combat" line offered by the White House.

"The contradictions and misstatements reflect the fact that even in the case of a highly successful and popular mission, the confusion inherent in a fast-paced, unpredictable military raid conducted under intense pressure in a foreign country does not lend itself immediately to a tidy story line," the reporter claimed, citing "some experts."

Several excuses for the ever-changing story were offered by other publications, too.

The possibility that they were deliberate lies or worse was virtually never addressed.

But the U.K. Independent noted: "The impression persists that the administration sought to cast the operation in the most heroic light possible, at the expense of the facts."

Now, the President and his spokespeople and subordinates are refusing to offer more details or explanations.

The government has also announced that it will not be releasing pictures or any other evidence to support its claims even as suspicions continue to mount.

But as analysts pointed out, the newly revealed fact that there was no fire fight begs the question about where the "fog" may have come from.

And even more importantly: Why, in the absence of a fire fight, would U.S. forces put a bullet through the brain supposedly containing the most valuable intelligence on the planet?

What if bin Laden knew where that alleged nuclear bomb in Europe was located that was set to detonate after his capture or death?

None of those questions have been addressed so far.

But prominent critics are sounding the alarm.

"When such a foundational story as the demise of bin Laden cannot last 48 hours without acknowledged 'discrepancies' that require fundamental alternations to the story, there are grounds for suspicion in addition to the suspicions arising from the absence of a dead body, from the absence of any evidence that bin Laden was killed in the raid or that a raid even took place," noted Paul Craig Roberts, a senior official in the former Reagan administration in a piece entitled "The Agendas Behind the bin Laden News Event."

Roberts raised several important questions, too, as well as some comparisons.

"The entire episode could just be another event like the August 4, 1964, Gulf of Tonkin event that never happened but succeeded in launching open warfare against North Vietnam at a huge cost to Americans and Vietnamese and enormous profits to the military/security complex," he suggested, citing a series of government deceptions that have led to war based on lies and other atrocities.

Roberts suspects there are more lies about the bin Laden narrative than those exposed so far.

And he's certainly not alone.

It emerged recently that the man who owned the house next to bin Laden's supposed compound doesn't even believe the story either.

"To be honest, it's not true," he told Al Jazeera.

As the official story continues to be re-written by the administration and those in the media who simply re-package government press releases, critics and skeptics would seem to be justified in wondering what other lies and "fog of war" changes may emerge in the coming weeks and months.

And perhaps even more importantly, we might also wonder if there are lies that may never be exposed in their entirety?

Chapter 12

No Proof Has Been Offered Suggesting That The Official Osama Bin Laden Death Narrative Is Even Remotely True

There has been an endless amount of propaganda coming out dealing with the official Osama Bin Laden death narrative but there hasn't been one shred of evidence proving that these events actually transpired as we are being told they did.

We are just expected to believe whatever the corporate controlled media propagandists and the criminal government bureaucrats tell us even though there has been zero proof brought forward suggesting that anything they are saying is true.

The White House has even changed several significant details of the official story which raises a number of questions about the credibility of anything pertaining to these alleged events.

In fact, this story has been so sloppily put together that one has to wonder if they are intentionally doing this so that people around the world will start to believe that the story is a lie which will result in more people around the world despising the United States.

What's so sick about this is that we were told that several high level members of the administration including Barack Obama himself were personally keeping track of the supposed raid that allegedly resulted in Bin Laden's death.

We were told that the raid was for all intents and purposes conducted under Obama's personal direction.

If that is indeed the case, why is there so much confusion over significant details surrounding the events of Bin Laden's supposed death such as if he was or wasn't armed or if his wife did or didn't charge at one of the Navy Seals?

These are details of which there should have been no question about especially considering what importance has been placed on the capture or death of this man since the 9/11 attacks.

Especially when you consider that all of the major power players in the Obama administration were said to be monitoring these events in real time.

It really does appear as if this is manufactured confusion on the part of the establishment so that various conspiracies are automatically given more credibility.

On top of this, Obama himself has stated in a 60 Minutes interview set to air this weekend that he will not release any Osama Bin Laden death photos because he claims the images would be used as a propaganda tool by terrorists.

So this either means that the photos don't exist or they don't want to release manufactured fakes.

Conclusion

CONFIRMED - IT WAS PAK FORCES WHO ATTACKED THE COMPOUND IN ABBOTTABAD

<http://aangirfan.blogspot.com/2011/05/it-was-pak-forces-who-attacked-compound.html>

Mohammed Qasim is a farmer's boy who lives right next to the compound in Abbottabad.

A special forces helicopter landed in the field just behind his house.

Masked men emerged.

Mohammed Qasim said they spoke fluent Pashtu, a language of Pakistan.

He heard them 'smash their way into' the compound.

Twenty minutes later, he heard the helicopters depart with their captives.

Which explains why there was never any live video from a SEAL helmet-cam.

IT WAS PAK FORCES WHO ATTACKED THE COMPOUND IN ABBOTTABAD

It was Pakistan forces who attacked the compound in Abbotabad.

It was Pakistan forces who took away the captives.

On 4 May 2011, The UK Daily Telegraph's Peter Osborne has an excellent report on what happened at Abbottabad. (The mysterious Khan family.)

A special forces helicopter landed in the field just behind his house.

Masked men emerged.

Mohammed Qasim said they spoke fluent Pashtu, a language of Pakistan.

He heard them 'smash their way into' the compound.

Twenty minutes later, he heard the helicopters depart with their captives.

According to Mohammed Qasim, two families had been living in the compound.

They were headed by Arshad Khan, 'in his forties', and his young brother Tariq.

They spoke perfect Pashtu (a language of Pakistan)

Mohammed Qasim said the Khans had eight or nine children, including Abdur Rahman and Khalid, both six or seven years old two or three women lived in the house.

These children also spoke Pashtu.

Every morning the mothers and their children would leave the house a Suzuki van.

Mohammed Qasim insisted that he never saw Osama bin Laden.

He said: "I don't believe he was there."

Peter Osborne could see "practically no signs of a fight" when he arrived at the Khan's family house.

"No bullet marks punctured the walls."

In January 2011, in Abbottabad in Pakistan, Pakistani authorities arrested Umar Patek, who is alleged to work for the CIA.

Did the Pakistan military get too close to a CIA safe house?

Did the Pakistan security services get involved in a fight at the CIA safe house and then discover CIA operatives (or members of bin Laden's family) being housed there?

Did the US military then arrive on the scene to remove the evidence and concoct a story to cover its involvement with al Qaeda?

Former Pakistan President Pervez Musharraf's 2004 autobiography talks about an Al Qaeda (CIA) safe house in Abbottabad.

(Musharraf knew of Abbottabad safe house?)

An ISI official told the BBC the compound in Abbottabad where Bin Laden was allegedly killed had been raided in 2003.

(Bunny Laden.) Pakistan's spy service (ISI) had been sharing information about the Abbottabad compound with the CIA since 2009 and had continued to do so until mid-April.

(Pakistan 'shared information about compound ...')

A Cobra helicopter belonging to the Pakistan military,
According to Pakistani Urdu TV channel Geo News (killed in Abbotabad near Islamabad of Pakistan)

Pakistani intelligence officials said that a Pakistani army helicopter was shot down in Abbottabad and then a search operation was launched by Pakistani forces.

At about 1:20 a.m. local time a Pakistani helicopter was shot down by unknown people in the Sikandarabad area of Abbottabad.

The Pakistani forces launched a search operation in the nearby area and encountered a group of unknown armed people. An exchange of fire followed between the two sides.

When the exchange of fire ended, the Pakistani forces arrested some Arab women and children as well some other armed people.

Two U.S. helicopters flew to the site and carried away a dead body

Initial reports said that at least one was killed and two others were injured in the crash.

At least two houses were engulfed by the huge fire caused by the crashed chopper.

The CIA's Larry Mitchell met Osama in an American hospital in 2001"

"U.S. officials have said that Pakistani officials were not told about the early morning helicopter raid until the strike team had killed Bin Laden and had returned to Afghanistan from where they took off, citing security reasons.

"Many Pakistanis were surprised at how this was possible, especially when initial reports stated that the choppers took off from a Pakistani air base."

(Bunny Laden.)

"I used to go to their house. He had two wives, one spoke Arabic, and the other one spoke Urdu. They had three children, a girl and two boys. They gave me two rabbits."

Bunny Laden. U.S. officials have listed a number of points that they claim prove the dead man is Osama bin Laden

DNA taken from 'the brain of Osama bin Laden's sister following her death from brain cancer' was a 99.9 per cent match to that of Osama.

A woman, 'believed to be one of bin Laden's wives', confirmed bin Laden was the dead man.

The CIA said they compared photos of bin Laden's body with known photos of him and were 95 per cent sure that they showed the same man.

The burial from an aircraft carrier in the North Arabian Sea was videotaped aboard the ship, according to a senior defence official.

All sounds like a lot of CIA lies?

So there you have it, lies upon lies upon lies everything The USA President Barrack Obama and the Americans have claimed on TV, Radio and in Newspapers lie after lie, we have destroyed the Official story and proven this a "Staged Event" to help President Obama falling Poll Numbers and give him a head start for the 2012 Presidential campaign in the USA.

But America is no different to my country Australia, this is all we have now days representing we the people in Parliament liars, they toe the party line and lie through their teeth for the Americans, when will we get politicians who will tell the truth.

We have you have enjoyed reading this book and don't forget some of our other books from The OzBoy File – Truth About Series.
